

Dr. Paul Bryan Hall - 1996

Dr. Hall, was a lifelong resident of Paintsville, Kentucky, practiced medicine in his hometown for over fifty years. He was instrumental in the construction of the Paintsville Golf Course in 1929, and over the years earned the respect and admiration of the numerous junior golfers, and earned the reputation as a great friend and benefactor to junior golfers in Eastern Kentucky. He served as President of the Kentucky Golf Association from 1955 to 1956.