

Fred Allen - 1997

One of the foremost leaders and administrators for golf in Kentucky, Mr. Allen compiled an impressive record as a player along the way. He qualified for and participated in the first two U.S. Junior Amateur Championships ever conducted (1948 & 49), twice qualified for the U.S. Senior Amateur Championship, and qualified for the Kentucky State Amateur Championship in six different decades. He was the founder of the Kentucky Senior Golf Association, and served as its President on five occasions. He also served as a Director for the Kentucky Golf Association and the KGA-PGA, Inc.
