

Bruce Gray Walters – 2013

Winner of over 70 amateur tournaments, including: the Paintsville Open in five different decades, nine Governor's Opens, several club championships at three different clubs and won John Owens KGA Player of the Year as a regular and senior golfer. He's participated in five USGA events, in over 40 State Amateurs and almost that many Kentucky Opens as well as playing four years of collegiate golf at Morehead State University. He has been ranked by Golfweek Magazine as one of the top ten senior amateurs in the country. Walters is a past president of the Kentucky Golf Association and has served as a board member for 35 years. He also served on the Kentucky Senior Golf Association board and was a captain of the U.S. Senior Challenge team. Walters is a strong supporter of and gives a tireless amount of time to many entities of Kentucky golf including Golf House Kentucky, East Kentucky Junior Golf Tour and served as head golf coach in his hometown at Pikeville High School.