

Gay Brewer – 1989

Gay Brewer, one of Kentucky golf's greatest champions, compiled a very impressive list of wins during his great career. His first major title was the 1949 United States Junior Amateur Championship, which he captured at Congressional Country Club in Washington, D.C. He also won the 1951 Kentucky Open, and claimed successive Kentucky State Amateur Championships in 1952 & 1953. He went on to a very successful PGA Tour career, which included eleven victories, most notably the 1967 Masters Tournament. He also represented the United States on the Ryder Cup Team in 1967 and 1973.
