

Mary Lou Daniel Crocker – 2010

Louisville native Mary Lou Daniel Crocker captured the U.S. Girls' Junior Championship in 1962, and is one of only five Kentuckians to have won a USGA Championship. She also captured the Western Junior Championship that year. She earned a scholarship to play golf with the men's team at the University of Kentucky, and was the first and only woman to earn a letter in a men's varsity sport at the University of Kentucky. She won the Women's Kentucky State Amateur Championship in 1965, and went on to a successful LPGA Tour career, highlighted by a win at the 1973 Marc Equity Classic.
